

Cromwell Cultural Centre Trust Trustee Biography

Name: Kerry Stainton-Herbert

Role: Trustee
Key responsibilities: The Arts, Theatre, Governance

Why are you involved: I have always had a strong commitment to community and have given back whenever possible.

I believe that as is evident by the success of the Bannockburn Memorial Hall and the Bannockburn Church that Communities are the best drivers of their own facilities.

Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Dip Agricultural Management. • Certificates: Project Management, Communications, Human Resources.
Experience	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I am a born and bred Southlander but over the years I have lived and worked in other areas of New Zealand. • Live in Bannockburn permanently since 2011 • Own and work in Stewart Town Vineyard • Volunteer Involvement: Plunket, SPELD NZ, Sports team management, Board of Trustee, Edendale Business Association, Clutha Agricultural Development Board, PCW South Otago, Telford Rural Polytech Board, SIDE Dairy Event, Bannockburn Community Centre Management Committee, Women In Wine Central Otago. • I have held office at some stage in all the above. • My working life has been varied and interesting. • Owned and operated a Rural Transport Company, have farming interests. • Worked for several Government Departments, including IRD and Department of Social Welfare, TAB NZ. • I was privileged to be part of The Fonterra Foundation employee team and worked for Fonterra up until moving permanently to Bannockburn. • My involvement with the local wine industry has let me experience all aspects, from Cellar Door, viticulture, sales and lots more. • I have held many roles throughout my working life, with a strong emphasis on project management and negotiation. • My passion is my vineyard and the stunning wine that is produced and travelling this amazing world.